April 2024

Grand Knight – Bob Conochalla

Brother Knights,

Monday April 8 we will experience a solar eclipse. Susan and I are heading to New Castle, Indiana where the eclipse of the sun with last 4 minutes and 58 seconds. I asked the question “What is the spiritual meaning of the solar eclipse?” and here’s the answer:

In many modern spiritual traditions, solar eclipses are seen as opportunities for introspection, reflection, and transformation. They are often associated with themes of endings, beginnings, and rebirth. Some people believe that solar eclipses can bring about spiritual awakening and a heightened sense of awareness. Isn’t this interesting because it’s occurring right after Easter.

On Sunday, April 28, the Knights of Columbus Council 10514 welcome all of our brothers and their families to attend our 9:00 AM Mass for Corporate Communion (flyer, page 7).

A Corporate Communion Mass is a special Mass for the Knights of Columbus Council members and Corpus Christi Assembly 2810 to gather together as one with their families and friends and share the Eucharist together in both fraternity and unity. Following Mass, we will have breakfast with friends and family in the parish hall.

Together, refreshed in Christ, we continue the mission of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity. This is always a wonderful opportunity for our Council to attend Mass and receive the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist as one body.

We will also award our youth scholarships at this breakfast. Please come. Wear your green shirts and show your support of our council.

Your brother Knights are calling you this month to wish you a Happy Easter and to update our files. If they leave you a voice mail, please return the call. If you’re not receiving a call, that means we don’t have your correct contact information. Call me or Mike Greene so we can update your file.

Finally, please pray for the sick and distressed in our council. Send me an email if you’d like us to keep you in our prayers.

Mary Queen of the Knights, Pray for us.

Fraternally,
Bob

Council Chaplain – Fr. Manny Lopez

Brothers in Christ,

On Sunday, April 7th, we will celebrate the feast of Divine Mercy. It was revealed to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, by our Lord, that He desired a special feast day to be celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Divine Mercy Sunday was named by Pope St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

In private revelations to St. Faustina, our Lord stated, “My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy.” Our Lord further promised additional graces on Divine Mercy Sunday, “On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through

Our God is a God of Justice. Jesus has re-emphasized, through St. Faustina, that He is also a God of Mercy. There are many places in the Bible that speak of God’s mercy. “The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in mercy.” Psalm 145:8, Be merciful, just as [also] your Father is merciful.” Luke 6:36.

I would encourage each of you to regularly avail yourself of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confessions are heard before each week-end Mass. If you are in need of additional time to address your individual situation or require spiritual direction, please call the parish office and arrange for an appointment. Let us have no fear to draw near to Jesus and ask Him for his tender mercy and forgiveness.

Mary, Queen of the Knights, pray for us!

Blessings,
Fr. Manny

District Deputy – Kevin Ryan

Brothers,

I need to open paraphrasing the same way I did last month.

It's been another banner month for the District! Every Council has been amazingly busy and active with Social and Spiritual Parish Events, Exemplifications, Fish Frys, 'Into the Breach Programs', Lenten Program Participation and especially the welcoming and display of the St. Joseph ICON plus much, much more. Our District will have added 20 or more new Brothers by month end. Every one of you continues to amaze me.

As Lent comes to an end, I truly hope all of you found the peace and healing this great liturgical season can bring. As we chatted about last month, Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving enhanced our appreciation and discernment during this time of penance and soul searching. Our Good Friday Services can be powerful culminations of this Lenten journey and of course, the great joy and celebration of Easter, it's greatest gift! The part you and your councils have played in bringing your parishes through this Lenten Journey as well is appreciated and respected more than you can imagine. Every part of our mantra of Charity, Unity and Fraternity was utilized this Lent. The gift of Knighthood has never been so apparent as it was this Lent in District 17. Thank you.

New Officer voting is upon us, just a reminder to actively support and pray for your new Officer Slate and look to ask them what can you do to help them make their 2024-2025 Fraternal Year a tremendous success. I know they need Directors and Chairman and would welcome your help.

I wish you and all your families the most wonderful and rewarding Easter ever. If traveling during this time, please be safe and return to us rejuvenated and ready to finish this year strong and ready to take on the next!

Vivat Jesus!
Kevin

Eucharistic Adoration

Members of Notre Dame Council 10514 have committed to spend one hour each Friday in Eucharistic Adoration. The Holy Hour takes place in the Adoration Chapel at Santa Maria del Mar Church from 11:00 AM to Noon. The request is for a volunteer to commit to either the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, or 4th Friday of each month. Any member that would like to commit to one Holy Hour per quarter, can sign up for the 5th Friday of the month. The Knight's Holy Hour times and reminders will be available through the Ministry Scheduler online program. Members can also volunteer for times other than on Friday morning. Although not required, members are asked to wear their green Notre Dame Council shirt to Adoration. Contact Bob Conochalla: (859) 509-2108 or bconochalla@gmail.com

“Knights of Columbus Family Fraternal Benefits”

Easter greetings! As we roll through the first full month of spring we celebrate Easter with thoughts of gratitude for the gift of new life. The Resurrection and thoughts of our Savior’s sacrifice and triumph over death are fresh in our minds and hearts. The dreariness of winter and Lent fade away with April rains that seem to have their own scent. All nature seems in bloom. Trees barren not long ago are now budding and flowers begin to poke through the warming soil. For many, it’s their favorite season of the year.

Along with everything else going on in April, it is also Autism Awareness month. The Autism Speaks website (www.autismspeaks.org) contains much more information that I can give you here. Autism has been more widely discussed and better understood in recent years. Although the TV show “The Good Doctor” portrays a doctor who has autism, those with Autism Spectrum Disorder exhibit a broad range of characteristics. Many have much less functionality than the doctor portrayed on the show. I mention this because many of us know of someone who is on this autism spectrum. If diagnosed early in childhood and intervention begun, those with autism may still live a relatively normal life. However, many with autism struggle and have other complicating medical or psychological issues and need much support during their lives.

That’s where the Knights of Columbus Family Fraternal Benefits may be able to help. The Family Fraternal Benefits cover a number of situations. One benefit addresses the child who is older than 60 days and younger than 18 and is uninsurable according to our ordinary underwriting practices. Many children with autism as a primary or secondary diagnosis fall into this category...uninsurable. For those children, the Order has a special family fraternal benefit that allows the issuing of an ordinary permanent life insurance policy on this uninsurable child. Some members may be unaware of this benefit, but it’s great news for any parent with a child who does not qualify for life insurance. There are some other qualifiers for the parents and any other children in the family, including that the father must be a member in good standing in his council. I won’t go into the others here, but this is a very worthwhile benefit, not only for those children with autism, but for any child who may be uninsurable.

If you know of a Catholic family that may have a child with autism or any family with a child who is uninsurable, please reach out to me. They may be unaware of this benefit. I will be happy to contact them explain this valuable protection that is available. If you prefer, give my name and contact information to that parent so they can contact me at their convenience. As always, there is never any requirement to purchase any product, but a consultation about this benefit may bring them some small comfort.

As always, thank you for the opportunity to serve you, my members. Enjoy your spring!

FEAST OF PASSOVER

Crowds arrive for Passover

Passover Celebrated

BY EDITORIAL STAFF

Large crowds gathered in Jerusalem for the annual Passover celebration. Passover (Pesach) is a major Jewish holiday that celebrates the deliverance of the Israelites' escape from slavery in Egypt.

This year's celebration was marked by an unusual occurrence in which a trial was conducted by the Sanhedrin. A man, Jesus of Nazareth, blasphemed on a number of occasions as was attested to by a number of witnesses. Jesus also claimed to be the Son of God. After hearing the testimony of all, Caiaphas, the high priest, asked the scribes and elders present 'what should be done'? They agreed that he should be put to death. The governor of Judea, Pontius Pilate, later gave the orders to carry out the sentence.

Part of the Passover celebration in Jerusalem is the release of a Roman prisoner. This year the governor of Judea honored the custom by releasing a prisoner by the name of Barabbas.

Jubilant crowds welcome Barabbas as he is released in the city of Jerusalem.

PILATE LISTENS TO MEMBERS OF THE SANDHEDRIN AS THEY LAY OUT THE ACCUSATIONS CONCERNING JESUS

Jesus Christ 'Tried', Crucified

BY LUKE THE SYRIAN

Editor's Note: (Various eyewitness accounts were used to compile this article)

The elders of the people, chief priests and scribes, arose and brought Jesus before Pilate. They brought charges against him, saying, "We found this man misleading our people; he opposes the payment of taxes to Caesar and maintains that he is the Christ, a king." Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He said to him in reply, "You say so." Pilate then addressed the chief priests and the crowds, "I find this man not guilty." But they were adamant and said, "He is inciting the people with his teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to here."

On hearing this Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean; and upon learning that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod who was in Jerusalem at that time. Herod was very glad to see Jesus; he had been wanting to see him for a long time, for he had heard about him and had been hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at length, but he gave him no answer. The chief priests and scribes, meanwhile, stood by accusing him harshly. Herod and his soldiers treated him contemptuously and mocked him, and after clothing him in resplendent garb, he sent him back to Pilate. Herod and Pilate became friends that very day, even though they had been enemies formerly. (continued next page)

Pilate then summoned the chief priests, the rulers, and the people and said to them, “You brought this man to me and accused him of inciting the people to revolt. I have conducted my investigation in your presence and have not found this man guilty of the charges you have brought against him, nor did Herod, for he sent him back to us. So no capital crime has been committed by him. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him.”

But all together they shouted out, “Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us.”— Now Barabbas had been imprisoned for a rebellion that had taken place in the city and for murder. — Again Pilate addressed them, still wishing to release Jesus, but they continued their shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!” Pilate addressed them a third time, “What evil has this man done? I found him guilty of no capital crime. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him.” With loud shouts, however, they persisted in calling for his crucifixion, and their voices prevailed. The verdict of Pilate was that their demand should be granted. So he released the man who had been imprisoned for rebellion and murder, for whom they asked, and he handed Jesus over to them to deal with as they wished.

As they led him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country; and after laying the cross on him, they made him carry it behind Jesus. A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.’ At that time people will say to the mountains, ‘Fall upon us!’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’ for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?” Now two others, both criminals, were led away with him to be executed.

When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.” They divided his garments by casting lots. The people stood by and watched; the rulers, meanwhile, sneered at him and said, “He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God.” Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, “If you are King of the Jews, save yourself.” Above him there was an inscription that read, “This is the King of the Jews.”

Roman soldiers look on as Jesus Christ (center) is crucified. Two other criminals were crucified along with Jesus, one on his right and the other on his left. Jesus’ mother, Mary, was also present and looked on in sorrow as her son was dying.

OBITUARIES

JESUS CHRIST

Jesus Christ, 33, of Nazareth, died Friday on Mount Calvary, also known as Golgotha, the place of the skull.

Betrayed by the Apostle Judas Iscariot, Jesus was crucified by the Romans, by order of the ruler Pontius Pilate. The causes of death were crucifixion, extreme exhaustion, severe torture and loss of blood.

Jesus Christ, a descendant of Abraham, was a member of the House of David. He was the son of the late Joseph, and Mary, his devoted mother. Jesus was born in a stable in the city of Bethlehem, Judea.

He was survived by his mother, Mary; his faithful apostles; numerous disciples and many other followers. Jesus was self-educated and spent most of his adult life working as a teacher. Jesus also occasionally worked as a medical doctor. It is reported that he healed many patients. Up until the time of his death, Jesus was teaching and sharing the Good News, healing the sick, touching the lonely, feeding the hungry, and helping the poor.

Jesus was most noted for telling parables about His father’s Kingdom and performing miracles, such as feeding more than 5,000 people with only five loaves of bread and two fish, and healing a man who was born blind.

His body was quickly buried in a stone grave, which was donated by Joseph of Arimathea, a loyal friend of the family.

By order of Pontius Pilate, a boulder was rolled in front of the tomb. Roman soldiers were put on guard. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that everyone try to live as Jesus did. Donations may be sent to anyone in need.

DISMAS

Dismas died earlier today. The causes of death were crucifixion, extreme exhaustion and suffocation. He was crucified to the right of Jesus Christ at Golgotha.

Prior to his death, he asked Jesus to remember him ‘when you come into your kingdom’.

Burial arrangements were pending at the time of publication.

GESTAS

Gestas died earlier today. The causes of death were crucifixion, extreme exhaustion and suffocation. He was crucified to the left of Jesus Christ at Golgotha.

At this time, Roman authorities are seeking family members or friends to claim the deceased so that burial arrangements can be made.

St. Joseph Prayer Service

Notre Dame Council 10514 held a prayer service honoring St. Joseph on the first Friday of March in Santa Maria del Mar Church. The St. Joseph Icon Program flowing from the Year of St. Joseph declared by Pope Francis in 2021, and inspired by his apostolic letter Patris Corde, is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus to honor St. Joseph and pray for his intercession in preserving, cultivating and passing on the Catholic faith to future generations.

Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly chose to entrust his service as Supreme Knight to St. Joseph and through this Pilgrim Icon Program, encourage Knights and their communities to "turn in prayer to St. Joseph, give thanks to God for the gift of fatherly example, and ask St. Joseph to be a father to us" as we seek to "grow in our own imitation of St. Joseph's quiet strength, integrity and fidelity."

In the first year of his pontificate, Pope Francis received the Order's Board of Directors in a private audience, during which the Holy Father said, "I commend all of you in a special way to the intercession of St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family of Nazareth, who is an admirable model of those manly virtues of quiet strength, integrity and fidelity which the Knights of Columbus are committed to preserving, cultivating and passing on to future generations of Catholic men."

Supreme Chaplain's Challenge (April)

A monthly reflection and practical challenge from Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori

“By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.” (Gospel for April 28, Jn 15:8)

Have you noticed the progression in the challenges over the past months? If we recognize who Jesus truly is, we must listen to him and serve him. We have St. Joseph as a true model of that faithful service and discipleship. Now we are told that the Father is glorified through our discipleship and the fruit we bear. By being faithful disciples of Christ, may we bear much fruit and so glorify the Father.

This month, I challenge you to prayerfully ask yourself if you are bearing much fruit as a disciple of Christ and then identity and undertake one way you can be more fruitful.

Questions for Reflection:

- What fruit do you currently bear — in your marriage and family, in your relationships at work or among friends, and in the broader community?
- Are you mindful of the needs of those around you and the opportunities they present to bear fruit?
- Are there things you can do to become still more fruitful in your Christian witness?

Mary, Queen of the Knights, intercede to Jesus for those in need of his healing

Prayer for the Healing of Loved Ones

Almighty God, look with mercy and kindness on our loved ones who are sick, especially those listed here. Grant them good health. Send your holy Angels to watch over them. Protect them from danger, and keep them safe from lasting injury or harm. May the life-giving grace of Your Divine Son relieve their suffering and bring them to a full recovery. Embrace them with Your constant love, and with the power of Christ's healing presence, that Your bountiful goodness may be their source of comfort, strength and joy. Amen.

Prayer for the Faithful Departed

O Loving Father, Source of all life, please accompany Your servants, listed here, from this earth, to the Kingdom of heavenly peace, rest and eternal life that You have prepared for us. Forgive any sins that have been committed, and welcome these departed souls into the joyful embrace of Your never-ending love. Amen
