

The Annual Christmas Dinner Dance took place on December 8th in the Parish Social Hall. Dinner was catered by Pasta Faire and entertainment was provided by Lisa Coan. We have used Pasta Faire and Lisa in the past and they have always provided good food and memorable song and dance. Fr. Dominik started the festivities with an opening prayer. More than 160 Knights and parishioners, family and friends attended. There were three winners of the 50/50 sharing in more than $250 in prizes.

Thanks to Mike Colvin and Joe Agnello and their wives, together with a bunch of Knights who helped set up before the dance and clean up afterwards and especially to Larry Waite who finished the final clean up on Monday morning.

Serving tables ready to go. Pasta Faire at their finest!
