Grand Knight Message

Welcome Brothers to a new and exciting fraternal year, my third as your Grand Knight. First let me thank all of the Officers who have served during my terms and those serving with me this year. And thanks to all of you who have helped our Council in our many service activities.

This is our first Council newsletter for the year 2020 - 2021. Hopefully, it will be one of many. Your contribution to our newsletter is most welcome.

We look forward working with our new Rector Fr. Gavin Badway and second-term Chaplain Fr. John. We see good things ahead! Looking forward to having you join our many works.

Hospitality & Fellowship

Although there is uncertainty due to coronavirus pandemic, we are scheduling two dinner events. The events are tentatively scheduled for November and January. More information will follow in the month's ahead.

Faith in Action (FIA)

Our FIA teams are established and working on program development. Key members include:

Program Director Charles Smith

Faith Director Deacon Greg Horton

Community Director William Piedra

Life Director Joe Johnston

Family Director Deacon David Zanotelli

When you have questions regarding service activities, please contact these Brothers via email. We need your help to be successful. The work is both fun and rewarding.

FAMILY

Leave No Neighbor Behind

During this time of crisis, in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, our Council is increasingly engaged in the following:

Support Our Brother Knights

Support of Our Parish

Support for Our Community

Feeding the Hungry and working with the Parish Food Pantry

If you, or a Brother Knight are in need, please call or email any of our Officers to discuss assistance. Stay safe.
