Message From FN John McCarty, Assembly 3296

On November 6th we turn the clocks back. In advance of that activity All Saints and All Souls days are good days to turn our cerebral clock back an hour and use these two days to worship and prepare ourselves on our journey ultimately to meet our Savior. What better way to reflect on Sainthood by requesting their help to obtain a similar status through their intercession. All Souls Day we reflect first on members of our family, relatives, friends and those unknown to us who have gone before us to their next life that they may be granted eternal life. We respectfully request that eternal rest be granted unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Let our pillar of Charity be expressed through our prayers to the Saints and for the Faithfully Departed.

Our Assembly continues to make strides in the first half of the fraternal year as seen elsewhere in this newsletter. Please consider

Message From Dea. Kevin Mukri

Pride is undue self-esteem or self-love, which seeks attention and honor and sets oneself in competition with Almighty God. It was pride that caused the fall of Lucifer and the devils and caused the fall of Adam and Eve. We must guard ourselves from this insidious and destructive vice. What complicates our efforts to fight against pride is that we live in a prideful society. Our prideful society, setting itself in competition with Almighty God, promotes gravely illicit sins as good. Pope Saint John Paul II, of his blessed memory, wrote "If acts are intrinsically evil, a good intention or circumstances can diminish their evil, but they cannot remove it. They remain irremediable evil acts..." Society's promotion of evil is deceitful and confusing unless we put God's Will first in our lives.

For example: Rather than see new life as a gift from Almighty God, society promotes the destruction of the baby in the womb. Rather than see life under the total authority of Almighty God, society tells us it is good to end the life of the aged and unproductive.

Continued from page 1 Rather than see life under the total authority of Almighty God, society tells us it is good to end the life of the aged and unproductive. Rather than see marriage as a sacrament between one man and one woman open to life, society says marriage can be between any combination of genders. Rather than believe that Almighty God made us man and women, society promotes a man dressing up as a woman and reading books to children. Don't accept the lies and pride of our society. Protect your families by speaking often about God's truth and stay close to the Sacraments. Living our faith in our secular society can be challenging and exhausting, but with God's grace, we can create a new society that reflects God's truth. Now is the time for Sir Knights to engage in the fight against pride and evil in our society. And when our earthly journey is over, we will join St. Paul in saying, "I have competed well, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. And the crown of righteousness awaits me."

Joint Venture Between The Two Assemblies

Sir Knights of the Color Corps:

On October 7, the combined Color Corps led the entourage of participants in The Living Rosary celebrated at St Vincent de Paul Church. Individual members also led in the recitation of The Lord's Prayer at the beginning of each decade. Nine members participated. We received many compliments on our appearance and presentation

On October 10, the combined Color Corps stood honor guard at the casket during the wake of Linda Robacker, wife of SK Francis Robacker. We are deeply saddened at her passing and our sincere condolences to Francis. Twelve members were present at Heirs-Baxley Funeral Home from 3-5:30 PM

On October 14, the combined Color Corps led the procession and recession at the funeral for SK Daniel Brennan. Daniel had been ill for many years and his condition prevented him from being active and we received a late request to participate in the service but four members were there. The family thanked us.

Upcoming Events:

November 3: Funeral for BK Bill Pearson at St Mark The Evangelist. Members participating please arrive by 9:30 AM.

November 11: Veterans' Day Mass at 8:30 AM at St Timothy followed by a short ceremony outside by the flagpole Taps will be played by Carla Beaudoin of Bugles Across America. Members participating please arrive in full uniform at 8AM.

Ending on a different note (pun intended) We want to extend a grateful welcome to SK Steve Gilkeson, the newest addition to our Color Corps. Steve has been looking spiffy in his new uniform and his cheerful attitude and enthusiasm is much appreciated. I am especially impressed by Steve's willingness and eagerness to learn about the color corps.
