Faithful Navigator Reflections & Directions

Fellow Sir Knights:

I want to thank you for having the confidence to elect me your Faithful Navigator and the rest of our officers for the 2026-27 cycle. We hope to not disappoint you and to carry on the great things the Joe Guerrero initiated in the last two years.

As with any change in administration, changes are to be expected. I have three catch phrases, that you have heard me say innumerable times to both the Assembly as a group and to individual Sir Knights:

I don't care if we have always done it that way. What do our Rules and Regulations say?

If you follow the written Rules and Regulations, you can't go or be wrong.

We need to think outside the box, but not outside the Rules and Regulations.

The Fourth Degree, known as the Patriotic Degree, was established in 1900 to promote the principle of patriotism alongside the original principles of charity, unity, and fraternity.

Members of this degree, Sir Knights, are committed to demonstrating loyalty to both God and country, actively participating in programs that support veterans, active military personnel, and civic responsibilities. It is not a social club. It is not an opportunity to party, to let your hair down and to just have a good time.

The primary purpose in the Fourth Degree is to foster the spirit of patriotism and encourage responsible citizenship. Members exemplify Catholic values while serving their communities and nations, promoting the ideals of Catholic citizenship and patriotic service. The Fourth Degree also emphasizes the protection of life, family values, and religious freedom, reflecting the Knights' commitment to moral and civic duties.

The Fourth degree is the patriotic order. We should always strive to remember those who given their time, their effort and so much more. Those who have fallen and should be remembered by all of us. Their sacrifices whether in military service, civil service or patriotic service to our country will be remembered.

With this in mind, our priorities are to offer our physical and financial support to those like-minded organizations. Whether through fund raising activities or remembrance celebrations, these should be our primary goals.

For remembrance of them and not for us!

Vivat Jesus:

Gerry

Gerald B Gawaldo
