Disabilities drive to start

Council 4955 will be mounting its annual Campaign for People with Intellectual Disabilities (Tootsie Roll Drive) January 4-5 at Our Lady of Mercy Church.

Members and their family volunteers are needed at the doors of local parishes on selected weekends through March seeking donations for local charities, including:

ARC of Broward Alzheimers Support Group
BPAN Warriors Foundation Medical Research Support
Dynamos of Pompano Beach
Equine Assisted Therapies of South Florida
Sallarulo Race for Champions, Special Olympics Florida
Campaign chairman are Guy DeJohn and Don Macejko.

Parish captains organizing volunteers include:

Assumption John Yardley
Our Lady of Mercy Mike Tarr
St. Ambrose Bill Whiting
St. Elizabeth of Hungary David Rouchard
St. Gabriel Guy DeJohn
St. Paul the Apostle Jeff Graham

This year, all donations will be deposited in a new John A. Hill Council 4955 Charitable Fund, which qualifies as a 501(c)3 charity. Donors may qualify for a tax deduction by doing so online at a link provided here.

Last year, council members raised $8,643.

Please fill out member survey

All council members are asked to fill out the Annual Survey of Fraternal Activity. It can be found on Page 7 of this newsletter or the council website: kofc4955.com/survey.

The Order uses this to demonstrate the impact of the Knights in our Church and community, and to justify the tax status of the organization. Please turn in to Financial Secretary Bill Whiting by January 13.

Please thank each and every one of them for what they did. May God bless them all. My sincere love and appreciation to all of them.

The food was delicious, and they worked so great! God bless each and every one of them.
