Archbishops William E. Lori's Column

In Truth, there is only one truly totalizing fact, and in the season of Advent we are preparing to celebrate it anew. It is the birth of the Son of God into human history: “The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us” (Jn. 1:14) St. Paul spoke of Christ who “is before all things, and in him all things hold together” (Col. 1:17), while the Book of Revelation celebrates Christ as “the Alpha and the Omega” (Rev. 1:8). Once we open our hearts to Christ, we are amazed to discover that he is the one we’ve searched for all along.

Christ and his Church need no cancel culture because he who made us and redeemed us embraces the whole of reality—whatever is good, true and beautiful in our humanity, culture and experience, including art, culture, and other religions. For that reason, popes have boldly called the Church an “expert in humanity.” The Church engages, conserves and purifies human thought and endeavor, remembering the counsel of St. Paul to consider “whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, and if there is anything worthy of praise” (Phil 4:8)

This Christmas, after you hear the proclamation of the Lord’s birth, share in his sacrifice and receive his body and blood, peer into the creche to see not only the image of a baby, but indeed the Lord of history. For it is the eternal Son of God who has brought to fulfillment the father’s plan for the redemption of the world. It is the Lord who gives history its direction and purpose, and who gives us meaning, freedom and eternal life.

Archbishop William E. Lori's Challenge

This month, I challenge you to reach out to others: family, friends acquaintances and invite them to a celebration of Christmas, especially Christmas Mass. Second, I challenge you to participate in the Faith in Action Keep Christ in Christmas program.
