Deacons Report

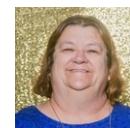

Dear brothers in Christ,

I recently watched the movie, "Zone of Interest". It's about the commandant of Auschwitz death camp, Rudolph Hoss. Hoss and his family lived in a home next to Auschwitz. To all appearances they were a normal family. The difference, however, was that on the other side of the wall separating their home from the camp thousands of individuals were being beaten and brutalized.

As the Hoss family went about their daily routine of living a normal life, they were oblivious to the suffering taking place on the other side of the wall. It is easy to ignore the suffering of others. How often have we become so busy with our own lives that we fail to reach out to people we know are suffering.

God bless,
Deacon Stan Grenn

Six Pro-Life Quotes on the Value of Life

1. "Life is the most basic human right, and without it, no other rights can be enjoyed or protected." — Unknown
2. "I believe our society has a responsibility to defend the vulnerable and the weak. And I believe our nation should set a goal that unborn children should be welcomed in life and protected in law." — President George W. Bush

4. "We cannot diminish the value of one category of human life "the unborn "without diminishing the value of all human life." — President Ronald Reagan
5. "If the unborn is not a human person, no justification for abortion is necessary. However, if the unborn is a human person, no justification for abortion is adequate." — Greg Koukl, Christian Apologist and Founder of Stand to Reason
6. "There is no more precious gift you can give than life. Our forefathers fought and bled to bring about in this land a nation dedicated to the premise that all men are created equal." — Dr. Pat Robertson, Televangelist and Political Commentator.
