Grand Knight's Report

Worthy Brothers,

As I reflect during this holiday season, I find myself thinking of all the blessings and graces from our Lord. May we all focus on the real reason of the season, Jesus and His love. I hope all of us, take time to add extra prayers for all of those who are in need and remember we are called to be the hands and feet of Christ, let us all try to help someone in need this month.

December has a slower schedule for us as Knights, but please remember first Friday Mass on the 3rd, we cook breakfast at Christ the King on December 5th, and our K-Cees annual Christmas party is on the 12th and we need you to come and enjoy this great event. RSVP for this event on the website or call Ralph Mosley.

Wendi and I wish all a very Merry Christmas and may His Blessing be with you and your family.

May the Joy of Christ's birth be with us all.

In His love,
John Klinkenberg

Deacons Report

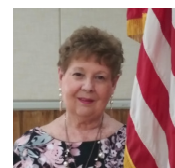

Brothers in Christ,

One of the greatest mysteries of our faith is why God, who created the universe and everything in it, who is all knowing and all powerful, would take on human form and become like us in every way but sin? The best answer can be found in the Gospel of John: "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that everyone who believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life."

But what does God expect of us in return? Mark gave us the best answer: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself." Whenever we help our neighbor whom we can see, we are showing our love for Christ whom we cannot see. Merry Christmas.

God bless,
Deacon Stan Grenn

Culture of LIFE December 2021

Well, the battle is increasing and the pro-choice folks are getting more belligerent and angry. Lots of threats and attempts to run us over it seems. We wave and bless them, praying for their change of heart, which for some reason, makes them even madder?

We need your prayers for our safety, for the mother and fathers to change their hearts and for the poor babies being murdered each day in our city. Still seeing those Black Lives Matters signs around and sadly, most of the women killing their babies are black? Does that make sense to you?

Come join us pray. During Advent we will also be there at 10:00 a.m. on the 28th as Knights and Parishioners from Christ the King for a special rosary.

Join us standing or sitting (bring you own chair, I do) in front of the abortion clinics: Each Monday from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. to say the Rosary in front of "A Woman's Choice" of Jacksonville, 4131 University Blvd. S., Jacksonville, FL 32216 and/or Wednesday and Thursday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Planned Parenthood, 5978 Powers Ave, Jacksonville, FL 32217.
