Brother Knights,
Our next Council Meeting will be on Monday November 4th after the 5:30. During that meeting we will decide which night is best for all to move our Council Meetings to. I want to thank all brother Knights and their Wives and Family members who helped with Oktoberfest. The first Sunday of the month will continue to be our Knights of Columbus Corporate Communion at the 11 am Mass. We gather together as a family of knights to celebrate the Mass. We are a family organization, and families are always welcome to be together during our Corporate Communion. A very big thank you to the Holy Spirit Council of Catholic Women for their continued help for our new council. Looking forward to some exciting times working with them.

Vivat Jesu
Al Therriault

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of your divine son on earth.

Brothers,

A Better Alternative than Relying on Family

Many people believe their kids will take care of them if they need Long-Term Care someday. While it may seem like a simple solution, you need to consider what being a caregiver really means.

Children typically have their own family and career obligations. So, adding the role of caregiver to an already busy day can take a physical, financial and emotional toll. It's not unusual for caregivers to ignore their own health, often becoming ill themselves. A child frequently must take time off work or quit a job altogether in order to care for a parent.

Additionally, family conflicts sometimes arise when one child assumes a greater share of caregiving duties.

There's no doubt most children will step in to help their parents when the time comes. A Knights of Columbus Long-Term Care Insurance policy provides the funds to hire professional services, so the kids don't have to take on the full responsibility of caregiving. Long-Term Care Insurance simply allows the kids to keep the promise they made to care for their parents by hiring professionals to be there when they can't.

Talk to your Knights of Columbus Field Agent about how he can help you create a plan to help your kids keep their promise to care for you.

Vivat Jesus!

Oktoberfest was fun for all. Matthew Pelligrino won the Stein holding contest for the men and Liza Beard won it for the women. Ester Porta won the 50/50. Chefs Al Therriault, Bob Balke, Tom Norton did an outstanding job. There was plenty to eat. So many scrumptious deserts and a fantastic cake.
