Charity Unity Fraternity Patriotism

August 2023

From our Grand Knight Bob Hildreth...

Dear Brothers in Christ,

As we are about to launch into another Fraternal Year filled with activity and good works let's think about our Council's agenda. It contains a lot of the same activities that we normally engage in – the Father Manning Golf Outing, the Easter Egg Hunt, Breakfast with Santa, our various youth activities and, of course, the breakfasts and dinners. Those, of course, are only a portion of our council's activities during the coming year. And there is always room for new ideas.

I wonder if we all realize just how vital the success of all of these endeavors are, to both us as a Council and to us as individuals. For they all combine to various degrees the tenets of our order and of our faith: charity with the money we raise, unity in our determination to make these things happen together and fraternity in our love for each other as brothers with a common Catholic faith and purpose.

It takes a LOT of energy and commitment to make it all happen. So don't just come for the pizza, brothers. Let's all recommit ourselves to making it work again as it has so successfully in the past. Step up, take a deep breath, and dive in. Believe me, the water's fine!

Vivat Jesus!

Brother Bob

Knowledge is power !

I thought I'd share this information about our Universal Catholic Church which had its humble beginnings at the foot of the cross, some 20 centuries ago. For some of you this information may be a review and I think for some it may be new.

Our (Catholic) Church is comprised of six different liturgical rites, and within those rites, there are twenty-four particular Churches. These twenty-four sui iuris (autonomous or self-governing) Churches are all in communion with one another and are all within the Catholic Church and all recognize the primacy of the pope.

The Latin (Roman) Catholic Church is the largest of these twenty-four Churches and is the only Western Church. The other twenty-three Catholic Churches are all referred to as Eastern Churches and have their own traditions and forms of liturgy, yet retain the same basic liturgical structures and theology as seen in the West.

Often the entire Catholic Church is commonly referred to as the Roman Catholic Church. This term doesn't show the full universality of the Church, and many popes over the last few hundred years have sought to safeguard the importance of the Eastern Churches. (Sidebar thought)... It's interesting to think about how much time we seem to spend in ecumenism between other non-Catholic Christians, yet we overlook that we have Eastern Catholic brethren with a rich patrimony we should be aware of, respect for and explore and celebrate.

In his 1894 apostolic letter, Orientalium Dignitas (The dignity of the Easterners') Encyclical of Pope Leo XIII had this to say:

"The Churches of the East are worthy of the glory and reverence that they hold throughout the whole of Christendom in virtue of those extremely ancient, singular memorials that they have bequeathed to us. For it was in that part of the world that the first actions for the redemption of the human race began, in accord with the all-kind plan of God. They swiftly gave forth their yield: there flowered in first blush the glories of preaching the True Faith to the nations, of martyrdom, and of holiness. They gave us the first joys of the fruits of salvation..."

In regard to "the True Faith", it goes without saying that all twenty-three Eastern Catholic Churches submit to the doctrines and dogmas defined by the Catholic Church. Dogmas cannot be rejected by Catholics, be they Eastern or Western. As the Council Fathers during the Second Vatican Council taught in Unitatis Redintegratio (Restoration of Unity)

"All in the Church must preserve unity in essentials. But let all, according to the gifts they have received enjoy a proper freedom, in their various forms of spiritual life and discipline, in their different liturgical rites, and even in their theological elaborations of revealed truth."

Eastern Catholics may go about their theology in a way that is different from what we see in the Latin Church, but it is equally valid and never strays from the essentials of doctrine. Furthermore, this means that any Catholic of a sui iuris Church may receive the sacraments and attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass (or Divine Liturgy, etc.) at any sui iuris Church. Each of the twenty-four Churches are fully Catholic; one can fulfill their obligation for Mass at any one of these Churches whenever they desire.

Pope of the Universal Church This high praise for the Eastern Catholic Churches was continued in the documents of the Second Vatican Council, specifically in Orientalium Ecclesiarum (Of the Eastern Churches) promulgated by Pope St. Paul VI in 1964 (emphases added):

“The Catholic Church holds in high esteem the institutions, liturgical rites, ecclesiastical traditions, and the established standards of the Christian life of the Eastern Churches, for in them, distinguished as they are for their venerable antiquity, there remains conspicuous the tradition that has been handed down from the Apostles through the Fathers...

“The Holy Catholic Church, which is the Mystical Body of Christ, is made up of the faithful who are organically united in the Holy Spirit by the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same government and who, combining together into various groups which are held together by a hierarchy, form separate Churches or Rites. Between these there exists an admirable bond of union, such that the variety within the Church in no way harms its unity; rather it manifests it, for it is the mind of the Catholic Church that each individual Church or Rite should retain its traditions whole and entire and likewise that it should adapt its way of life to the different needs of time and place.

“These individual Churches, whether of the East or the West, although they differ somewhat among themselves in... liturgy, ecclesiastical discipline, and spiritual heritage, are, nevertheless, each as much as the others, entrusted to the pastoral government of the Roman Pontiff, the divinely appointed successor of St. Peter in primacy over the universal Church.”

The Six Rites

We see here that the words “rite” and “Church” pop up quite a few times. What are the differences between these terms? The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) put it pretty succinctly in 1999:

“We have been accustomed to speaking of the Latin (Roman or Western) Rite or the Eastern Rites to designate these different Churches. However... we ought to speak, not of rites, but of Churches. Canon 112 of the Code of Canon Law uses the phrase ‘autonomous ritual Churches’ to designate the various Churches.”

The 1990 Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches clearly defines the difference between “rite” and “church”:

“Canon 27 – A group of Christian faithful united by a hierarchy according to the norm of law which the supreme authority of the Church expressly or tacitly recognizes as sui iuris is called in this Code a Church.

“Canon 28 – A rite is the liturgical, theological, spiritual and disciplinary patrimony, culture and circumstances of history of a distinct people, by which its own manner of living the faith is manifested in each Church sui iuris.”

Below is a list of the six rites of the Catholic Church, followed by which sui iuris Churches are contained within them. Our Spiritual Advisor, Subdeacon Elias Azzi (attends and serves at Mary, Mother of the Light Maronite Catholic Church, which is part of the Antiochene Rite, located in Tequesta.

Timelapse of Every Catholic Diocese in History

The Screen shot above is of a short Timeline (5 minutes) of every Catholic Diocese (not church) that existed in History. It also will have the picture (on the left, St Peter) of the Pope at the time and Top right box is the year that is being shown. The important events on saints on the bottom right will show precisely what is says.

So showing in the screen shot above...is year 31, St Peter the first Pope, Events; The Resurrection of Jesus and the Great Commission. I have not checked in detail for accuracy of the Timeline but my guess it's pretty close.
