Every year, the Edward A. O’Neil Assembly’s Color Corps has been called upon to escort the Archbishop on Memorial Day. For the past 25 consecutive years, we have escorted the Archbishop, or his representative, at Queen of Heaven Cemetery in North Lauderdale. On this day, the Archbishop, as the representative of the Catholic Church in South Florida, honors all those who have given their lives in the defense of this country.

This event has grown over the years. Originally, a mass was celebrated in the hallway of the mausoleum, which was lengthened over the years, until finally a chapel was built, and dedicated by then Archbishop Favalora. This chapel, an integral part of the cemetery, is no longer able to contain all those who wish to attend the special mass, and so the mass is broadcast to those outside in the hallways. This year marks the 25th anniversary of this celebration and the O’Neil Assembly responded. There were 15 Corpsmen present, who escorted six local priests, a deacon and the Archbishop. Approximately 350 people attended the service.
